

The Record

SHOPPING

THURSDAY, DECEMBER 7, 2006

Hung ^{by} the chimney ^{the} chimney with care...

But what to put inside? Here are 15 ideas for $15 or less

By ERICA DIETSCH
STAFF WRITER

Maybe you want to stuff a stocking or buy gifts inexpensive enough to spread out over the eight nights of Hanukkah. Perhaps you want to get your co-worker or little neighbor something small or spend a bit on yourself.

Regardless, here are 15 terrific gifts totaling $15 or less, including some we found at North Jersey stores.

■ Grow-a-Head ($9.99 to $11.99). The perfect gift for plant lovers – and wannabe stylists. Grass “hair” grows on top of a customizable coconut-husk byproduct head. Grow-a-head.com.

■ I Can Bake Hanukkah Cookies ($8.95) and Winterberry Tea ($2.95). The store has a wide selection of gifts at or under this price; the cookie mix with a dreidel cookie cutter caught our eye, as did the tea packaged in a festive box. Mango Jam, 41 N. Broad St., Ridgewood, 201-487-9911.

■ Bear Hands gloves ($15). These waterproof gloves feel like mittens and fit boys ages 3-7. 646-290-5835 or pureboyclothes.com.

■ ZipWraps Automatic Earphone Retractor ($7.99). Tan- See HOLIDAYS Page F-5

